

The True Northerner.

O. W. ROWLAND, - - EDITOR.

PAW PAW, MICHIGAN, MARCH 30, 1883

Republican State Ticket.
For Associate Justices of the Supreme Court—
AUSTIN BLAIR (full term).
THOMAS J. O'BRIEN (to fill vacancy).
For Regents of the University—
HARRY B. HUTCHINS.
JOSEPH C. JONES.

Republican Caucus.
A caucus of the republican electors of the township of Paw Paw will be held at the Court House, in the village of Paw Paw, on Saturday, the 31st day of March, 1883, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for township offices for the ensuing year.

B. F. STEARNS, Secy.
C. H. BUTLER, Twp Com.
C. P. RAWSON, Secy.

Let no Republican voter be deprived of his vote this spring, by a neglect to register. Had all Republicans registered last fall, as they should have done, Michigan would have had five more Republican members in Congress than she has to-day. Doubtless there were many Republican voters in the State who, when they saw the narrow margin by which the opposition member in their district was elected, regretted their indifference and carelessness in this matter of registration. Remember that the success of our State ticket, or of your own local ticket, may depend on your individual vote. Therefore, make sure of your vote by getting registered, and then go to the polls and vote. Every man in the State who was not registered last fall, must be registered this spring, or lose his vote. All prior registration is of no avail.

Next Monday is election, and it behooves every Republican voter to be at the polls and vote for the candidates of his party. The combined opposition are making desperate efforts to defeat our candidates, especially the candidates for Justices of the Supreme Court. Personal appeals are being made to Republicans all over the country, to scratch their tickets and to vote for Champlin and Sherwood. The candidates of the Republican party are unexceptionable in all respects and rank among the ablest men in our State. Austin Blair, Michigan's War Governor, is one of the very best lawyers in Michigan and in ability and all necessary qualifications for the Supreme Bench, stands head and shoulders above either of the candidates on the fusion ticket. Mr. O'Brien ranks very high as a lawyer, and those who know him best unite in saying that he possesses in an eminent degree, all the qualities needed for a successful Judge. An effort is being made by the opposition to secure his defeat, on the ground that he has been a railroad lawyer. While we do not believe that the fact that a man has been recognized as having the ability to manage the legal affairs of a railroad would be any objection to him; yet, in this case, the statement is false, and has been so branded by his partner in business, Mr. D. Darwin Hughes. Our candidates for Regents, are men of large and liberal attainments, and in all respects worthy of the positions for which they have been nominated. Let no Republican be induced by personal appeals, by specious arguments, or by false statements, to do otherwise than vote his ticket without a scratch. This is the last election before the Presidential election in 1884, and we cannot afford to give the opposition the prestige of victory in Michigan at this time. It would endanger not only the success of the party in this State, but in the Nation, at the next election. Let Republicans consider well these things, let every Republican voter feel that equally upon him, with all his fellow Republicans rests the responsibility and the duty of keeping Michigan in the column of Republican States, and remember that the only sure way of doing this is by voting and working for the success of our entire State ticket on Monday next.

EDITOR TRUE NORTHERNER:

I find the following in the last Free Press and Courier, from Capt. Hendry, on candidates for the Supreme Court: "The truth is, Gov. Blair has, by his erratic course, forfeited all the respect he ever had, of any party. J. W. Champlin, of Grand Rapids, will just have a walkaway with that old political weather cock, Austin Blair. I stopped over a day at Battle Creek, and Judge Graves says that Mr. Champlin is the very best man in the State for the position." Now such a statement, coming from a man who has so much regard for the independent voter as the Capt. has, seems a little strange. His respect seems to depend entirely on the direction the independence takes. To my mind, this independence of party trammels which Gov. Blair has always maintained, from the days of the Free Soil party, down to the present time, is one of the chief evidences of his fitness for a position on the Supreme Bench. It shows him to be a man of convictions and courage enough to follow them regardless of party dictation. The language which the Capt. puts into the mouth of Judge Graves seems a little remarkable, coming from so quiet and unobtrusive a gentleman as is the Judge. I know nothing of Mr. Champlin's abilities, in fact I never heard of him until after his nomination, although he lives but a few miles from our county. Still, this may not be Mr. Champlin's fault, and may, perhaps, be set down to my lack of general intelligence, in not sooner discovering such a beacon light of judicial fitness. Yet, I can but think, from the peculiar manner in which the Capt. introduces this endorsement of Mr. Champlin, that he has some misgivings about it. In reading the Captain's communication, I am reminded of what Irving once remarked with regard to the authenticity of what he was writing: He said he had seen something, had read some, and had dreamed more than all, and just which was fact and which was fancy, he could not tell. I excuse the Capt.—he is getting old—memory failing—dreams and visions multiply, and with so voluminous a correspondent, that facts and fancies should get somewhat mixed, is to be expected. Without saying anything derogatory to other candidates, it may be truly said, that if broad culture, fine legal attainments, large experience in public affairs, unquestioned and unquestionable integrity, with an independence that follows the right, regardless of policy, are qualifications that fit a man to be a Judge, then Austin Blair is pre eminently fitted to be a worthy successor of Judge Graves, and an ornament to our State Judiciary.
